

RICARDO COMBALUZIER MEDINA

Born on May 14, 1962 in Merida, Yucatan. He made his professional studies at the Facultad de Arquitectura at the Universidad Autonoma de Yucatan and in 1986 obtained the title of ARCHITECT. Master in public space management by Universidad Modelo in 2018. He has studied diferents degrees in planning, urbanism, ecoturistic projects design, lighting and landscape architecture. Partner of Construcasa.com firm since 2003 and Partner of Grupo Arquidecture firm since 2005. He was President of the College of Yucatan Architects from 2000 to 2002. Professor of the Universidad Marista of Mérida from 2003 to 2006. In 2010 he obtained professional certification from the National Registry of Professional Certification (CONARC) and the Forum of Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC).

His projects have been recognized locally in the Yucatan architecture biennials and "State Award for Housing". In national events such as the mexican architectural biennials, regional biennials, the "Obras Cemex" award and the National Housing Award. He has also been awarded in international events like the "Leading Culture Destinations Awards" and "Partnerships Awards" both from London, England, the Biennial of Architecture in Costa Rica, the Iberoamerican Biennial CIDI and the "Argentine Association of Hospital Architecture and Engineering Awards".

Arquidecture Group has been recognized in the ranking "Diez Despachos" of the Obras Magazine that annually honors the best firms of Mexico in various categories, in 2019 "Icon makers", in 2013 "Firms + Sustainable", in 2012 "Firms with the happiest clients", where Arquidecture Group ranked first, and in 2011 "Talents forging firms in Mexico".

He has completed projects in different states of Mexico, participated at various conferences and his work has been published in magazines and books nationally and internationally.